

Fair Update #4

Hey everyone!

It's me again, with even more info for you. Thanks again for your patience as we take this day-by-day.

A couple more updates today:

- Horse exhibitors: a letter went out about the virtual show, dates and details. Please find it attached as well.
- If you have not paid your entries for the fair, please do so immediately. They are now officially past due 😊 Drop them off M-F 8am until 4:30pm or send them in the mail.
- Compeer has announced their Blue Ribbon Project Contest. Check out this neat opportunity today! <https://filetransfer.compeer.com/filedrop/BlueRibbon>

That's it for today! We will have more details later this week. Thanks for sticking by us. Have a wonder"fair" day!
